

Community Volunteer Opportunity

Transitional Services for Youth and Families (TSYF) is seeking volunteers to serve on our Chittenden County Restorative Justice Panel. Restorative Justice promotes the involvement and perspectives of community members in determining a fair, structured way to resolve juvenile crimes. The Panel consists of community volunteers as well as the youth and victim involved in the crime. The Restorative Justice process allows community members to better understand the specifics surrounding each case, and be involved in decisions that impact the safety and wellbeing of their community.

Position Expectations:

- + Open-minded
- + Highly collaborative
- + Willing to increase knowledge of (through Agency trainings):
 - o Balanced & restorative justice
 - o Juvenile court process and probation
 - o Child & youth development
 - o Victim perspectives
- + Minimum 6 month commitment

If you are interested in hearing more about the Restorative Justice Panel at TSYF please call Dave Amsden at 802.863.4130 x107 or email davea@tsyf.org.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

TSYF's mission is to provide innovative and integrative social service and educational programming to youth and their families that encourages the cultivation of personal growth and wellness through strengths-based, restorative justice, and solution focused practices.
